March

PASTOR TOM'S "LITTLE CORNER OF HOGE"

March greetings from your Pastor! Hard to believe that the first day of spring is Thursday, March 19th! Seems like it's been a very mild winter, which I'm not sure if it's good or bad for us, but we'll take it, because our heating bills here at Hoge have been very manageable this winter! Sunday, March 1st will mark the return of our Sunday worship services to our beloved sanctuary – I enjoy the intimacy of Wold Hall for worship during January and February, but it sure is special to return to our gorgeous sanctuary – It makes your Pastor's heart sing! The season of lent is upon us – Ash Wednesday this year is Wednesday, February 26th, and as Lent begins for us again, we must take the time to reflect on our human condition. Lent gives us 6 weeks to reflect – We may spend the rest of the year running from our sinful nature, but Lent is a time to open the doors of our hearts a little wider, to understand our Lord Jesus Christ a little deeper, so that when Holy Week arrives with Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Resurrection Sunday, we will be ready to receive the overflowing grace of having our sins forgiven by our crucified Lord. Lent should be an intensely private, penitential time, as we examine our sinful natures and return to the God we have, through our rebelliousness and hurtful personalities – And ultimately, the purpose of lent does not stop at sadness and despair – It points to the resurrection and the day when all our tears will be dried up. Although the nature of suffering is not one that offers itself to easy explanations or simple answers – The answers we seek seem to make the most sense in light of the cross.....There's nothing in the world – No religion – No philosophy – No material comfort – That can offer such a powerful answer to life's toughest questions as the two slabs of wood on which our Savior died. Although our faith draws us in search of joy, it's the cross that should keep us coming back, day after day, and year after year. Lent is the time of year that we are reminded of what our Lord Jesus Christ did for us! When we realize the complexity of our Lord – The love of our Lord – The humanity of our Lord which shows through – And then we realize that God is not just some nebulous energy source, or a grandfather sitting in the clouds – Jesus Christ is so much more! The cross is where our faith stands, when all other faith falls.....Christ's sacrifice and resurrection are the true "Cruxes" of our Christian faith – Without one there would be no salvation, and without the other, no hope. This is why the season of lent holds a great deal of importance regarding our faith. So, I encourage you, reflect on your faith during Lent – Our humanness – Our frailties – Examine how you can build your relationship with our Lord, Jesus Christ together with your brothers and sisters here at Hoge! We're looking forward to seeing you in worship, and if no one has told you lately that they love you, guess what? We love you, and will be here for you! May God be the glory! Enjoy your walk with God during Lent, and please join me in prayer.....Gracious and loving God, thank you for the gifts of this season of Lent – Thank you for knowing our hearts and our need for rhythms in our lives, and for drawing us into a deeper communion with you throughout our Lenten season – In the name of our precious Savior Jesus Christ, Amen!

Blessings to all,

Pastor Tom

A little girl, dressed in her Sunday best, was running as fast as she could, trying not to be late for Bible class. As she ran she prayed, "Dear Lord, please don't let me be late! Dear Lord, please don't let me be late!" While she was running and praying, she tripped on a curb and fell, getting her clothes dirty and tearing her dress. She got up, brushed herself off, and started running again. As she ran she once again began to pray, "Dear Lord, please don't let me be late...But please don't shove me either!"

March Birthdays

Janet Mullins, 4th and Dan Isel, 29th

Springtime is a beautiful time of the year. I along with so many others consider spring to be the most anticipated, exciting, and blessed season of the year. The cold weather, low temperatures, bracing wind, and even occasional snow and ice all pass away. The deadness of the trees, the barrenness of the gardens, and the colorless grass pass away, to be replaced with refreshing showers, delightful temperatures, and bright sunshine of March, April, and May. The summer's burning rays and burdensome heat have not yet arrived. Spring is a delightful time. Spring seems to bring a rebirth to all of nature. The blossoms arrive, the yellow daffodils and tulips show their colors, and the trees begin to display the light green shades of new leaves. Our gardens begin to show signs of new life as the vegetables rise from the soil. Spring means rebirth. Physical birth and spiritual rebirth the freshness of springtime resurrection after a previous death all of these combine to fill my heart with joy and hope. I hope that you will think beyond the fragrant flowers and blossoms, and beyond the cuddly baby you may see, and see the spiritual truths and realities that God wants to show us. Let us have eyes that really see! By Richard Hollerman

Memories of Hoge Memorial - by Nancy Loik

That summer we played lots of baseball and went to games at Red Bird Stadium. I was keeping some very good baseball scrapbooks. Later they were destroyed when mom made me clean the attic after my marriage.

I no longer worried about my health. I had started to menstruate at 10 years old. After that my heart was better. We had a homeopathic doctor in Pomroy that was great. He told me my heart was a muscle that needed exercise but when I got tired or it hurt I was to stop (jumping rope or whatever). So I did. This from the time I was about 5. Oh, I wore glasses. I looked like an owl but from 6 to 16 never broke a pair. I knew we couldn't afford to replace them

(On this page of the journal are three photo of Nancy with cousins and friends:) I loved going to see Aunt Gladys. I'd head for the outside privy and Betty and I would catch up on the news.

Aunt Gladys was a good cook. (She made the) best fried potatoes on a big iron stove. Once she made chocolate cup cakes. I ate almost 2 dozen. (I was a little older then.)

They had coal oil lamps and carried water up a steep hill. They didn't have electricity until Rural Electrification in the middle 30s.

(Bits and pieces:) Betty and her cousin, Cecil, tormented me about snakes. I tried to ride Betty's pony once-not successful. They had a spring house on the side of a hill. Water ran thru it. That's where they kept milk cold. Once I bit Betty (I was a bad kid). Mom tried to get her to bite me back but she wouldn't. Another thing we liked was sleeping together. We'd scratch each other's back. "You do mine 20 times and I'll scratch yours." Then I'd go to sleep and Betty wouldn't wake me. At their house I first learned there was no Santa. I was about 6 years old. I remember Aunt Gladys peeping thru the door to see if we were asleep (I wasn't).

The Kelly Family lived across the street from grandma. They filled up a large part of early elementary years. The 2 youngest girls, Alice and Agnes, were a bit older than I but they had just moved to Columbus. There were 3 older girls and 2 grown brothers and mom and pop. I was as comfortable (at their house) as I was at home. On Fridays the older girl made chocolate cake and they had homemade ice cream. We played Euchre. Once sitting on the piano bench I (accidentally) put my foot in pops spittoon. I went to church at St. Al's every Friday at confession and during lent at Stations of the Cross. I went to church as much as a catholic except Sundays. Sundays I'd go to Glenwood. Our next door neighbors were catholic too. The oldest girl, Florence McDonald, was my friend. The next girl, Rita, was a brat. Florence didn't dare pick on her so I did. Once when she didn't take turns on my bike, I knocked her off - our parents didn't speak for years. Years later they invited us to their home on Three C Highway. Mom had been real good to them during several pregnancies . She took food over, soup, etc. when there was none in the house.

Once Florence and I had a Halloween party together in our basement. She invited kids she went to school with and so did I. We decorated the basement real spooky. In the front room, mom fixed an iron pot with a flash light in orange paper and she dressed like a witch then told fortunes. It wen well until we started arguing about the next Saturday's football game between OSU and Notre Dame.

There was some prejudice then but our family was very liberal. Everyone was "New Deal" Democrat and even kids followed politics . In fourth grade the teacher did a straw vote between Hoover and Roosevelt. It was 38 to 2 - me and Bill Conn. Even then the Hilltop was Republican. Aunt Lena was the 11th ward boss. We attended pot lucks and rallies for years, usually at Hillcrest Baptist Church.

(Bits and pieces:) Betty and I liked to go to Aunt Lean's on Eldon Avenue but once we got in Dodo's makeup. Aunt Lena was ready to kill us. During those years (depression) Aunt Laura took me downtown to the Union and bought me an outfit for Christmas and Easter. I mostly wore hand me downs.

Financial Update – January 31, 2020 The following is a summary of Hoge’s 2020 financial activity through January. Detailed financial reports are available by request to the church office.

Maintaining our building for worship, mission, safety, beauty and use in the community is something to be proud of. Contact members of the committee to inquire how you are able to help with any of these projects (physically and/or financially). Please continue to commit to Hoge in prayer, physical efforts, and financially. Thank you for your continued support. God is calling each of us to do our part to keep Hoge alive, providing mission and outreach to our community.

ONE Great Hour of Sharing-This Lenten Season Hoge will once again be contributing to One Great Hour of Sharing. The three programs supported by this offering—Presbyterian Disaster Assistance (32%), the Presbyterian Hunger Program (36%) and Self Development of People (32%) all work in different ways to serve individuals and communities in need. We received a thank you from Bruce Wiebe, Director of Special Offerings for our support of these offerings – he informed us that they received $1,685 for One Great Hour of Sharing last year from us. Let’s see if we can go over that this year! Worship Committee
