PASTOR TOM'S "LITTLE CORNER OF HOGE"

October 2020

As I write this October article for our Hoge Herald newsletter, I notice that summer is waning.....It's getting darker earlier in the evening, and the early mornings are also darker this time of year. I just love the season of fall – I'm ready for cooler weather, the holidays are approaching, which means more time for family and friends – And the New Year of 2021 is right around the corner, and I think most of us are ready to see 2020, "The year of Covid-19" put to rest! However, we shouldn't rush this year, as we still have 3 more months of life's blessings to enjoy. I try to ascribe to the "No Hurry – No Worry!" philosophy of life, and there's a story in John 11 about the death of Lazarus that can teach us a lesson about "Staying-in-the-moment" and not being in a hurry. In John 11, Jesus receives word that his friend Lazarus is sick. Instead of rushing to Lazarus' bedside to heal him, verse 6 says that Jesus "stayed where he was 2 more days", and in the meantime Lazarus dies! Had I been one of Jesus' disciples, I would've had a hard time understanding why Jesus didn't drop what he was doing, and hurry to Bethany to be with Lazarus. There was, however, a point to Jesus' delay: "That God's Son may be glorified through it" (V 4), and "that the disciples may believe" (V 15): You see, the time was of no consequence to Jesus, who went on later in John 11 to raise Lazarus from the dead, and teach us a lesson in the process – Namely, it's not only the end result that matters, but also what we learn in the time it takes getting there – There's something to be said for proceeding steadily, but not quickly....."No Hurry – No Worry!" I drive a lot and have noticed over the years that my driving is slowing down – I don't race along to be the first one at the red light, and I've noticed that by slowing down, I enjoy the ride – It's time for introspection – A time to check in with myself – To notice the beauty of life along the road, wherever I may be. You see, I've come to value my drive for what it has taught me about the joy of "No Hurry – No Worry!" When I was younger and more foolish, I tended to rush things – I couldn't wait to be finished, as I thought the faster I went, the quicker I could move on to the next phase of life which seemed more appealing. I wish I had listened more and said less – I realize now that what happens during our journey of life is just as important as reaching our destinations of life. I'm less frustrated by moving at a slower pace. There's more self-discovery regarding the meaningful things in life. While the journey between life's milestones is important, so too are the much shorter distances we traverse each day – The time we stand in line to order a cup of coffee, the duration of a dull meeting, the afternoon bus ride home. I want to take my time with the same confidence Jesus had going to Lazarus. I don't get the sense that Jesus wasted that time, but instead, used it intentionally. The story of Lazarus reminds us that there is value in not being in a hurry – That no matter where we are on life's journey, when things seem to be going slower than we would like, ask yourself, "What am I not paying attention to that I should?" "What is God trying to teach me? What is God trying to tell me?" We need to recognize the specialness of each moment at hand – Remember, "No Hurry – No Worry!" Enjoy all of life's moments, and grow closer to our Lord, Jesus Christ! Amen!

HM3 Is Back-A modified version of HM3 has started in our parking lot! Due to safety concerns and cautions of the Covid-19 virus, we are sharing spiritual messages, music, connections and meals in the parking lot on Saturday nights. We look forward to the return of our other partners committing to the revival and success of this program. This is truly a community ministry with several churches work together to make it a success. Thank you to Roger Gorman for donating new lifetime lightweight tables for use during our ministries. These tables will be of great use for both HM3 and the Food Pantry. Come join us! We need help with additional "Hoge" persons. If you are able to help on Saturday nights with set up, tear down and clean up. Most of the time additional help is needed from 4:00 – 6:30. If interested, please contact any member of the Outreach committee.

Personal Care Pantry Needs- As part of Hoge's ministry and outreach, a Personal Pantry is part of our HM3 program. The pantry is open to the public on the second Saturday of each month. Donations of personal care items are always accepted for the pantry but the following items are currently in high need: Toothpaste, Personal hygiene Wipes, Chap Stick / Lip Balm, Deodorant. Please see Bev and Jack Neil or Kathy and Barry Schifferstein for additional information. Thank you for your support of this ministry.

The preacher was wired for sound with a lapel mike, (with trailing cord) and as he preached, he moved briskly about the platform, jerking the mike cord as he went. Then he moved to one side, getting wound up in the cord and nearly tripping before jerking it again. After several circles and jerks, a little girl in the third pew leaned toward her mother and whispered, "If he gets loose, will he hurt us?"

Nine Things to Love About Fall-Positive Living Adapted from Edward Grinnan's Editor's Note for the October 2018 issue of Guideposts. I've said it before: Fall is the best. Here are a few of my favorite things. 1) Perfect Hiking Gracie, my three-year-old golden, will implore me (you know that look they give you) to hike in any weather in any season. But there is nothing more exhilarating than hitting the trails in the apple-crisp autumn air, to say nothing of the brilliant turning leaves. And the company of a great dog. 2) Sports The World Series. The Maize and Blue. Enough said. 3) Food The flavors of fall—cider, ginger, pumpkin, cinnamon, squash, pears, radishes. Roasts, soups and stews. Something about the fall air charges up the appetite. 4) October The perfect month. Seriously. 5) Harvest Moon Is there a bigger, brighter full moon all year? Ask any farmer. 6) The Dying Light Not grim but simply the realization that we're on the final lap of another year. A good time to take stock, to rejoice and reflect, to forgive, to love, to give thanks. 7) Sweaters Who doesn't love sweaters? 8) Music Simon & Garfunkel's "A Hazy Shade of Winter"; Earth, Wind & Fire's "September"; Neil Young's "Harvest Moon." 9) The Firmament Longer nights, more stars.

Happy Birthday- October

Updates and Reminders

Editor's Note:

We are fortunate to be conducting bible studies here at Hoge currently. Pastor devotes time to prepare a half hour study before each of the Sundays that he conducts our sermons. In thoughts of that offering for us I researched a bit about bible study on the online Wikipedia Free Encyclopedia website. Here is sections of what I found.

In Christian communities, bible study is the study of the Bible by ordinary people as a personal religious or spiritual practice. Personal bible study is a time set aside to engage in bible study and prayer sometimes informally called a Quiet Time. Christians do not merely study the bible as an academic discipline, but with the desire to know God better and a message from God which has direct relevance to their daily lives. Inductive bible study is a means of studying and involving a critical interpretation or explanation of a biblical passage. One description of it is "interviewing a passage" without preconceptions or agendas. It involves examining the ideas and words of the text, which leads to the meanings and then the interpretations, which in turn lead the reader to conclusions and applications. One of the practices of Inductive study is the reader will read a passage and then ask questions of how they personally interpret the verse(s). These questions can range from what the verse(s) literally means to how it applies to the believer's present personal circumstances. The purpose of these questions is to go deep enough into the text to extract the meaning and then to apply that gained knowledge to their personal life in order to create change for their own or other people's benefit. There is Exegetical study is used most often by pastors, theologians, writers, professors, and church leaders in order to prepare for sharing lessons with others. It is often categorized as advanced Bible study and is meant to extract the ideas found in the text for the primary purpose of teaching. There is Small groups bible study within congregations. The bible is often studied in informal small groups. During these study times, groups will set their main topic to be biblical studies. The purpose of bible study is to collectively grasp an understanding of God through His Word. These groups become small communities often sharing this personal journey to discovering the meaning of the passage. The Catholic bible study, "On the Study of Holy Scripture", is an encyclical letter issued by Pope Leo XIII on 18 November 1893" In it, he reviewed the history of Bible study. He also addressed the issues of apparent contradictions between the bible and physical science, or between one part of scripture and another, and how such apparent contradictions can be resolved

I have emailed some of Tom's messages along with the lyrics to hymns that are passed out to folks at HM3 to those of you who have email. Here is one of the messages....I'm not sure if it is one of them I have sent out or not.

Once again....I couldn't sleep! Unresolved fear and anxiety became magnified by, the dark and silence.....I was questioning if God really cared. I snuggled under the covers, shut my eyes, and began remembering the blessings of the previous day, and as I counted them, my mood improved.....I received an email from a good friend regarding his recovery to good health! A phone call from one of my sons picked me up! A member from our congregation had successful surgery – Peace slowly replaced my fear – Still awake, I listed the things I had accomplished that day, no matter how trivial – vacuuming the house; washing the dishes; doing laundry; mowing the yard; contentment replaced restlessness – Finally, I recited my favorite Bible passages and prayers, and by the end of this process, I fell asleep! Secure again that God really does care for me and was working in my life.....These steps don't always cure my insomnia, but with more practice, they help. When my brain thinks it's time to get up at 2 in the morning, I have a drink of water and start my steps over again.....It's amazing how much more positive I have become each evening – And the habit of being grateful for the good things in my life sets a mood of praise for my Lord, Jesus Christ, which is truly relaxing – Thanks be to God! Amen!

Financial notes:

We continue to address maintenance needs of the building and property:

- Westside entry doors have been installed but final details are still being addressed
- Other entry doors have been varnished and look great
- New handheld microphones, lavaliers, and receivers have been purchased and are now being utilized during our worship services.
- Equipment needed to record worship services is now being utilized and video of our worship services are now available via Facebook; Joy Rector has also been emailing the videos to those whom she has an email for
- We are purchasing equipment, installation services and training to begin live-streaming services onto Facebook Live and YouTube in the near future
- The Finance & Facilities committee is reviewing our most urgent needs for efficient use of funds donated for building enhancements and improvements. If you have specific thoughts for maintenance needs of the church, please inform Janet Fetherolf or any member of the F&F committee

Hoge receives support from a variety of sources; those sources believe the work of Christ is present here and its impact to the community is true to our mission of Feeding the Community, Physically & Spiritually. Your consistent support is appreciated, especially during the challenging times of COVID-19. Life is starting to return to the building of Hoge. Group meetings are occurring in the building.

The Finance & Facilities committee values your commitment to Hoge with time, talents and funds. Maintaining our building for worship, mission, safety, beauty and use in the community is something to be proud of. Contact members of the committee to inquire how you are able to help with any of our missions. Please continue to commit to Hoge in prayer, physical efforts, and financially. If you are not currently participating in activities at Hoge, please prayerfully consider your willingness to do so. We have unique mission and outreach occurring here which is not happening anywhere else. You have to experience it to understand it! Patti Gorman Conrardy Treasurer
